THE CARNIVAL PEOPLE WANTED A PICTURE OF THE District Stock Show grounds from on top of their ferris wheel so The Editor and Don Parker, advertising manager, on Wednesday afternoon. First, however, the newspaper checked on a rumor that the ferris wheel had run away and out all its seats. The story was a phoney. What happened was this: The engine throttle broke down and the crew had to stop the big wheel. One cushion caught by the wind in an empty seat fell to the ground. . . . That's how rumors get started. We had a nice ride, and got our picture.

COWBOY CAUGHT IN THE ACT OF LEAVING the back of a wildly plunging Brahma steer, opening night of the rodeo Wednesday at the Third District Stock Show. The lightning shutter of the camera, at 1:25th of a second, shows detail that the human eye never sees. Note the rigging of the ropes around the Brahma's belly — and the graceful pose of the cowboy as he goes into orbit above the Coliseum's dirt floor. Picture was made from the judges' platform. Directly below were the chutes where the bronco and Brahma's stomped, groaned, and kicked the sideboard loose while waiting their turn to tear up some luckless rider. It's a tough way to make a living — riding for a rodeo . . . and this rodeo is one of the best.

Trio Arrested in L. R. Bombings; Hearing Delayed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The case of two men charged with three Labor Day bombings linked to Little Rock's school integration dispute was postponed today until Sept. 14.

Both E.A. Lauderdale Sr., lumber dealer and strong segregationist, and J.D. Sims, truck driver, were held on $50,000 bonds each. Municipal Judge Quinn Glover refused to reduce the bonds.

Sims, 35, rejected efforts of Amis Guthridge, a segregationist attorney, to represent him. Sims shuffled into the courtroom looking dejected. Judge Glover asked him if Guthridge was his attorney and Sims answered:

"I sent word to him last night (that I didn't want a lawyer)." Guthridge, attorney for the segregationist Capital Citizens Council, had asked that Sims be brought into court to prove he had retained counsel. The segregationist attorney insisted Mrs. Sims had employed him.

Another truck driver, Jossie Raymond Perry, also was held by police but no charges were filed against him.

Guthridge repeatedly tried to get the court to reduce Lauderdale's bond but each time Prosecutor J. Frank Holt replied: "I do not consider the bail excessive."

Guthridge charged Holt and Police Chief Gene Smith had refused to let him see Sims in jail last night.

"That's a false accusation," Holt shot back. Guthridge finally gave up on Sims and said he represented only Lauderdale. Lauderdale did not appear in court.

Sims and Lauderdale are charged with destroying property with explosives, a felony which could mean as much as five years in prison.

Race Trouble Played Down in California

GREENVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Former Professor Clennon King, Negro, said today racial conditions in California made him regret that "I deliberately antagonized Mississippians" by trying to integrate the University of Mississippi.

In a letter to publisher Hodding Carter of the Greenville Delta Democrat-Times, King said he had moved to California with his family in hopes of finding a "new and better" place to live.

"But what I found makes me sorry in a way, that I deliberately antagonized Mississippians as I did," for Negro Mississippians racial concerns are much more basic than school integration.

King, who once taught at Alcorn A&M College in Mississippi, moved to Los Angeles from Gulfport, Miss., last year after he failed in an attempt to enroll at the all-white University of Mississippi.

King said Los Angeles has the highest per capita major crime rate in the nation, and said most of it is committed by Negroes.

But "unfavorable racial matters and disliked racial thinking are made 'hush-hush' in California," King wrote, while "soiled reports from the South get predominant top billing."

In making public King's letter, Carter, a Pulitzer prize winner, said it "points up the fact that too many Negro leaders and too many white critics of the South minimize or try to obscure the Negro's poor civic record and high crime rate in areas to which he has migrated from the South."

"Criticism of the South," Carter said, "would be taken with better grace if it were accompanied by criticism of conditions elsewhere."

King wrote:

"My brief experience in Mississippi soundly taught me one thing, that despite all the hullabaloo there is far more bilateral concurrence there in Mississippi than the current racial propaganda admits."

Carter said he didn't know why King wrote him, "but I'm glad he did."

Train Rams Into School Bus, 7 Killed, 15 Hurt

MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, MD. (AP) — A St. Louis-to-Baltimore passenger train rumbled into a loaded school bus in mountainous western Maryland today, killing seven of the 25 children and seriously injuring 15 others.

The Baltimore and Ohio's east-bound Diplomat rumbled the bus at 8:30 a. m. (EDT) at a grade crossing marked by a flashing light and bell. The signals were operating at the time, the railroad said.

The bus apparently had stalled as it crossed the tracks. Several reports said the bus driver, Leroy Campbell, had the door open and was trying to get the children off the bus. Campbell, 50, had a safe driving record of more than 20 years with the county school system.

Campbell and all the injured were rushed to an Oakland, Md., hospital, about four miles away, by every available ambulance, station wagon and car which could be summoned quickly.

Mountain Lake Park is approximately 40 miles from Cumberland and about 100 miles from Baltimore.

Three of the seven dead were identified as Roy O. Hinkle Jr., Lee Hoffman and Nancy Lee Harvey.

The school children, ranging in ages from 8 to 14, were on their way to Southern High and Bennett Elementary schools at Oakland, county seat of westernmost Garrett County.

All the children were from the Deer Park-Lock Lynn area, a farming section in the southern part of the county.

Books, shoes and bits of clothing and pocketbooks were scattered along the right-of-way.

Garrett County Memorial Hospital, where the injured were taken, was crowded by mid-morning with nurses, doctors and clergymen. So, some of the injured were taken by ambulance to Memorial and Sacred Heart hospitals in Cumberland to relieve the crush.

Employment in U. S. Shows a Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both employment and unemployment declined in August. The job total, although curbed by the steel strike, still was a record for August.

The Labor Department announced Thursday that employment dropped in farming as well as the steel shutdown and early auto industry model changeover, declined to 67,211,000. This was down 553,000 from the 67,764,000 employed in July.

Unemployment in August declined to 3,426,000, or 316,000 less than the 3,742,000 idle in July.

Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary of labor said that aside from the steel strike lay-offs, the "underlying employment situation is very good."

Steel Talks to Comply With Appeal

NEW YORK (AP) — Company and union negotiators complied today with President Eisenhower's request for stepped-up talks to end the 58-day steel strike. They scheduled a Saturday meeting for the first time since the strike began.

The President had said Tuesday that "half-hearted bargaining is not enough."

The announcement of the Saturday session came after four-man industry and union teams met this morning.

The talks were expanded to a company-by-company basis.

New York Mob Attacks Two Policemen

NEW YORK (AP) — A crowd of 300 attacked two policemen with soda bottles, stones and sticks Wednesday night when they arrested two teen-age gang members of a West Side street.

The arrested youths, Reuben Aguirre, 16, and Thomas Martinez, 16, were members of the Buccaneers gang. Other members of that gang were involved in the slaying of two 16-year-old boys in a Hell's Kitchen playground Aug. 3.

Patrolman Frank Pillar said he found about 25 boys gathered on a sidewalk and ordered them to disperse.

"I ain't moving for you," Aguirre was quoted as saying. "This is a free country."

"You're under arrest," the patrolman said.

"I ain't going with you," reported Aguirre, who is president of the Buccaneers.

Pillar said the boy litaged for his nightstick and a shouting crowd gathered. Pillar held tight to Aguirre as Patrolman Richard Ware ran up. Ware vaulted into the crowd, while Pillar commanded a passing car to take Aguirre to a police station.

Then, Ware withstood the barrage of hurled objects until seven radio cars arrived with reinforcements. It took nearly an hour to clear away the crowd.

Martinez, who was arrested for throwing a bottle, was charged with felonious assault. Aguirre was charged with resisting arrest and disorderly conduct.

The police crackdown on young criminals, begun last Friday, resulted in the arrest of more than 425 youths under 21.

First Time His Veto Has Failed to Stand Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress today overrode President Eisenhower's veto of the second-try public works money bill—the first time this has been done in six years, eight months in the White House.

Senate action put the bill over in the face of the President's objections, since the House had voted 283-122 to override. That was 12 votes more than the two-thirds margin required.

In the Senate the count was 72-23, or 8 more than the required two-thirds.

The $1,185,300,000 measure, a perennial congressional favorite, contains construction or planning funds for flood control, navigation and reclamation projects for every one of the 50 states.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House voted today to override President Eisenhower's veto of the second public works appropriation bill.

Until today, the House had never voted to override an Eisenhower veto.

The roll call vote was 230-121, 12 votes more than needed to override.

A great shout went up at the announcement of the vote, marking the first time since Eisenhower took office that the House has mustered the necessary two-thirds vote to pass legislation despite the President's rejection of it.

The vote sends the $1,185,300,000 measure to the Senate where prompt action is expected. If the Senate also votes to override, it would be the first of 46 Eisenhower vetoes in more than six years that has been overridden.

The President vetoed the bill because it contained money for more than 60 projects which are not included in his budget program. He vetoed an earlier bill for the same reason but the House last week sustained that veto by a one-vote margin.

On today's roll call, 20 Republicans and 260 Democrats voted to override. Five Democrats and 216 Republicans voted to sustain the veto.

The House voted soon after Eisenhower's veto message was read.

In the message, Eisenhower suggested that Congress enact a stop-gap measure to continue public works projects now under way.

Later last month, Eisenhower vetoed the original money bill on the ground it contained 67 projects he had not included in his budget. He said then, and repeated today, that those projects "will ultimately cost our taxpayers more than 800 million dollars."

Third Housing Bill Version Sent to Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today sent to President Eisenhower a third-try, billion-dollar housing bill which carried advance administration approval.

The action came on a loudly shouted voice vote.

Two previous, and more costly, measures were vetoed by the President.

Passed 597 by the Senate Wednesday, the new bill was pruned of some of the features found objectionable by the President in the first two vetoed measures.

It omitted 5 million dollars of loans for college classrooms, which Eisenhower criticized as the start of a new program of federal aid to education which he said had no place in housing legislation.

Group Against Billy Graham Coming to L. R.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today the sponsors of evangelist Billy Graham were concerned about possible demonstrations against him at a scheduled weekend rally.

The segregationist Capital Citizens Council has started circulating anti-Graham leaflets.

Graham, due to arrive tomorrow for the rally Saturday and Sunday, was called on integrationist in the leaflets. The Citizens Council cited some of Graham's expressed views on the racial issue and his invitation to a Negro minister to appear at a New York rally.

Faubus said the sponsors feared some "sign-carrying" would be staged at a stadium where the evangelist is to speak.

The governor issued a statement which he said was intended to discourage any demonstration against Graham. The statement said such actions would not be "proper" in Little Rock at this time.

"Those who disagree with some of the expressions of Billy Graham have the constitutional right to do so and they have the constitutional right to express their criticism or disagreement," the statement said.

"On the other hand, the great evangelist has the constitutional right to his beliefs and expressions and those who wish to hear him."

The statement added: "In the present tense situation in Little Rock, with the people living under what many regard as the combined tyranny of the Justice Department and Police Chief Gene Smith, any disagreement should not be carried to the point of demonstrations."

Faubus said Graham should be allowed to hold the meeting in "perfect peace and in good order. That will be in keeping with the best traditions of Arkansas and American democracy."

Like Graham, Faubus is a Baptist. The governor said he expected to attend at least one of the evangelist's meetings. He praised Graham as a great gospel speaker.

The governor said State Police would be assigned to help with traffic at the rally and give any other needed assistance to Little Rock police.

Faubus has previously criticized Chief Smith for his role in breaking up a segregationist demonstration near Central High School last month. Police and firemen rescued about 200 persons marching on the school where two Negroes are integrated. Three Negroes attend previously all-white Central High School.

The segregationist leaflets said Graham had invited the Rev. Martin Luther King of Birmingham, Ala., onto his platform.

Rev. Wesley Pruden, chairman of the Citizens Council, said 40,000 copies of a leaflet which carries the picture were printed and ready for distribution.

Graham is scheduled to hold his crusade in War Memorial Stadium, which will seat about 40,000. Graham's headquarters said 9,000 persons are expected to attend the rallies Saturday and Sunday.

The two-day crusade is a re-scheduled appearance. An extension of the crusade had been planned for Little Rock in 1958, but the commission in charge of arrangements decided to postpone it because of tension generated over school integration.

The Citizens Council's leaflet attacks the Little Rock Ministerial Alliance, which is sponsoring Graham's appearance, for "trying to denigrate the city's churches through the Graham rally."

Pruden, pastor of a large Little Rock Baptist church, charged earlier that Graham's rallies would be integrated.

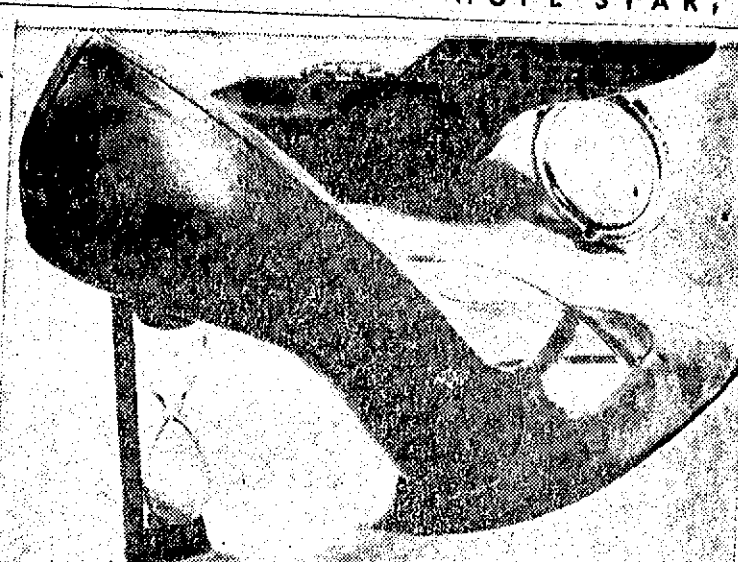

Graham is scheduled to arrive in Little Rock tomorrow.

Civil Rights
Bill to Delay
Adjournment

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The threat of a blowup over civil rights legislation caused leaders to abandon hope today of adjourning Congress this week.

Instead, the Senate started planning for a session early Monday hoping that, unless the civil rights bomb explodes, one more long day can complete the year's legislative work.

The threat of still further delays rested on the possibility of a strong Southern battle against extending the life of the Civil Rights Commission, which issued this week a report many Southerners didn't like.

Any such move almost certainly would bring on a counter-drive by advocates of strong civil rights legislation to enact extensive new laws.

With the fuse hissing, no one could say definitely that the bomb would explode, but none dismissed the possibility.

Other major pieces of the year's legislative platform started falling quickly into place.

The House was ready to accept a third-trip housing bill which the Senate passed 56-7 Wednesday and which had assurance of administration approval. President Eisenhower has successfully vetoed two previous housing bills, which he called inflationary.

A showdown was assured during the day on Eisenhower's veto of a second public works money bill which reached him only Wednesday. The House adjourned before it could receive the message Eisenhower had prepared, but arranged to vote today. And Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas alerted the Senate to be ready for a mid-afternoon vote on the veto if the House overrides the President's objections.

House action sent to Eisenhower a bill raising from 3 to 4 cents a gallon the tax on gasoline and other motor fuels effective Oct. 1 to assure continued construction of superhighways throughout the nation.

But the civil rights issue, and the controversy always provoked by the foreign aid money bill to which it is attached, held the key to adjournment possibilities. The measure goes before the Senate Saturday.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in an interview there is no chance that work on the money bill, the last major legislation of the session, can be completed before Monday.

imprisonment and a $300 fine for each.

Lauderdale long has been active in the segregationist Capital Citizens Council. He was twice defeated for the city manager board, once in a close race with Werner C. Knoop, now mayor.

Knoop's office was one of three places bombed Monday night. The others were the school board's administrative building and Mrs. Chief Gunn Nalley's official car. The car was blown up in Nalley's driveway as he and his family were asleep.

Police and the FBI had moved in the closest secrecy. Sims' arrest came Tuesday afternoon but it was not disclosed until his attorney sought his release late Wednesday through habeas corpus proceedings.

Lauderdale's arrest was disclosed by police after Guthridge and two other segregationists went in the police station Wednesday night and demanded to see him and Sims.

Guthridge quoted Lauderdale as emphatically denying any connection with the bombings.

Lauderdale's son, E. A. Jr., is a Little Rock fireman under Nalley's supervision.

Heavy Security to Shield Khrushchev

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has fashioned the strongest security shield ever to protect Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev from potential assassins, demonstrators, hecklers and crackpots.

Up to 15,000 policemen, plainclothesmen, National Guardsmen and government security agents will join forces in a massive, carefully coordinated plan to watch over the Soviet dictator every foot of the way.

About 2,500 will be deployed along the route into Washington Tuesday when Khrushchev steps off a giant TU14 turboprop jet liner at nearby Andrews Air Force Base to begin his 13-day coast to coast tour.

About a dozen Soviet secret police, led by Security Chief Nicolai Zakharov, are to be part of this unprecedented security network. A selected number will be allowed to pack guns.

Five of these Soviet security agents already have inspected the

Bombings Are Called Hoodlumism

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The editor of the Arkansas Baptist, Little Rock's integration-linked bombings "acts of terror and hoodlumism (which) cannot and will not be tolerated by a free people."

In an editorial prepared for the Sept. 17 edition of the weekly, Dr. Erwin L. McDonald wrote: "It is a part of our basic human rights as Americans to have divergent views on race relations, as on other matters which from time to time may be public issues, but no American has the right to take the law into his own hand."

Two men have been charged with destroying property with dynamite, a felony, in connection with blasts which damaged two buildings and an automobile here Monday night.

McDonald commended prompt police action and said: "We believe the worst has turned in the month-long crisis war of race in Little Rock. The straight-forward manner in which the city government, the Chamber of Commerce and the Little Rock School Board are now dealing with the situation in the interest of law and order is most heartening."

There has been no effort to integrate Pine Bluff High. The Pine Bluff School Board had planned to integrate voluntarily, starting at the first grade, in 1957, but the plan was indefinitely postponed because of the Little Rock crisis.

A federal judge has ordered admission of three Negroes to Dollarway, a rural school on the northwest city limits of Pine Bluff. An effigy was hanged there last week.

Pine Bluff school officials declined comment on last night's incident.

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—An effigy of a Negro was hanged last night to the flagpole at Pine Bluff High School.

Gily firemen, acting at the request of school officials, cut the figure down shortly after it was discovered.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Bruce H. Bean, before an arrangement of gladioli and stock flanked by candelabras. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace over tulle, fashioned with a scalloped neckline and tiny cap sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a tiara of lace and seed pearls. The bride's only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a white bible topped with lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Miss Betty Nolan of Little Rock served her sister as maid of hon-or. Miss Judy Scott was brides-maid and Mrs. Jada McQuise of Blytheville was matron of honor. The three attendants wore identi-cal floor length gowns of pastel colors. They carried bouquets of shasta daisies entwined with matching color streamers. Travis Hunt served the groom as best man.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Nolan wore a dress of blue lace over tulle with blue carnation cor-sage to her shoulder. Mrs. Wright, mother of the groom, wore a blue silk check two piece suit with white accessories. She also wore a white carnation corsage.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the church. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth over blue tulle centered with an arrangement of daisies.

Mrs. Boyce Nolan served the three tiered wedding cake of white with pink roses topped with a min-iature bride and groom. Mrs. Wal-lace Nolan poured the punch. Mrs. Ronald Gardner was in charge of the bride's book.

For travel the bride wore a beige sheath with matching accessories. She pinned the orchid from her bridal bouquet to her shoulder.

After a short trip to Hot Springs the couple will be at home in Mag-nolia.

DOROTHY DIX

Best Martial Policy:
Is It Total Honesty?

Dear Dorothy Dix: You give many reasons for success in mar-riage but I have yet to see you recommend complete honesty as the basis for domestic harmony. My husband and I have been married two years and we stand definitely for a creed of complete honesty. We both had experi-ences before our marriage. We were completely honest about this. We both have quick tempers, when we quarrel we rave and rant, but calm down quickly and there is never a hidden misunderstanding until the next day. Everything is ironed out before we say good night. We realize that our creed must necessarily involve hurting the other person occasionally but we think it's better to get the hurt over at once, before complications set in. We feel that the worst hazard to marriage is to build trust, then have it destroyed by hidden truths. If, for instance, I hadn't told my husband of my previous experiences, he would have trusted me; but if he later learned about them he could have no faith in me at all.—Elfrida

Dear Elfrida: As with most things in life, there are pros and cons. Really complete honesty is an almost impossible quality to retain in any relationship, here are times when, in the interests of peace, harmony and the other fellow's feelings, diplomatic con-cealment of the truth is necessary. Seldom do you find two people so constituted that they can take liberal doses of unadulterated truth at all times. The important thing in marriage as in any other relationship, is to gauge the tem-perament of another person and know just how much truth to ad-minister. For one thing, it's rare to find people who have as little jealousy as you two. The secret of matrimonial happiness differs from couple to couple. It's each man's job to find their own par-ticular means of getting along with each other.

Dear Dorothy Dix: We are three teenagers who often go to high school dances. We have a prob-lem. When a boy thanks us for a dance, what do we say?—Trio

Dear Trio: Smile graciously, even though your feet hurt, and tell him you enjoyed it, too.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Is there any-thing wrong in a girl's asking a boy to her apartment when she is alone? My mother says yes, that people will talk even though I am a good, decent girl. I know I can take care of myself. I will go whatever you suggest.—Gloria Y.

Dear Gloria: Mom is right. This is a very risky thing for a girl to do. You may think now that you can take care of yourself but in the clutches you uncover can be sure. People will talk. Of that you can be sure. So, no boys in the apartment.

Drysdale, Moon Finally Win for Dodgers

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

One game, or one play. Even one hit. That may be the difference, the turning point in the National League's three-way scrap for the pennant. And that one hit may have been put away Wednesday night.

The big game went to Don Drysdale, the right-hander who had lost six in a row and was on the spot in any hopes for a flag for Los Angeles. He junked the slump with his first victory in a month, getting it with a three-hitter that beat Philadelphia 1-0.

The big play was Wally Moon's, giving Drysdale and the Dodgers their run. He did it with a base-running, moving from first to second on a foul popout then scoring on Gil Hodges' single.

The big hit was Bobby Avila's—a grand-slam home run in the ninth that boosted Milwaukee's Braves, pressing for a winning streak, to a 5-3 victory over St. Louis after they had been held to two hits for eight innings.

That left the Braves and the Dodgers in a tie for second, three games behind San Francisco. The Giants kept that edge by whipping Pittsburgh 7-2.

Cincinnati beat the Chicago Cubs twice, winning the opener 4-2 in 10 innings and the nightcap, held to five innings because of darkness, 7-2.

In the American League, Chicago's White Sox won 5-1 at Washington for a 4½-game lead over second-place Cleveland. The Indians swept a two-night pair at Baltimore 3-2 and 4-1. Detroit beat Boston 3-1 and New York defeated Kansas City 4-0.

Drysdale (16-12) was tagged for two triples (by Joe Koppe and Ed Bouchee) and hit three batters, but he didn't walk a man and struck out 11.

Avila's shot, his third homerun, gave Warren Spahn his 19th victory. Ernie Broglio (6-12) and held the Braves hitless from Joe Adcock's 23rd home run in the second inning until Adcock singled leading off the ninth. Then Johnny Logan and Del Crandall singled, loading the bases with one out and setting up Avila's third major league slam.

The Giants made it with three runs in the fifth on one hit. Two score as the Pirates missed on a doubleplay try—with Willie Mays scampering home from second and first baseman Dick Stuart argued the call. Jack Sanford (13-12) who had lost three in a row, won it with Stu Miller's single, two inning mop up. Harvey Haddix (11-21) was the loser, giving up May's 27th homer for a 2-0 Giant lead in the third.

McPike Quits Football at the University

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—After today, the Razorbacks have exactly six work days to get ready for the opening game with Tulsa University. And Coach Frank Broyles is now faced with the task of replacing second team right tackle Earl McPike.

McPike quit the team yesterday and told Broyles he was going back to his home town of Worland, Wyo., to work. He said he may enroll at either Wyoming University or Tulsa University in January.

"But I won't play football," he added.

Neither McPike nor Broyles would say why the 220-pound sophomore quit. McPike cited only "personal reasons."

It was the second line loss in a week for the Razorbacks. Guard George McLeod from Walnut Ridge quit last weekend for health reasons.

Philbrick Les Letzinger, who was shifted from end this week, missed practice yesterday but Broyles said he would be back today.

The Hogs began work yesterday against the Tulsa offense. Especially the Tulsa passing attack. Quarterback Sonny Holmes directed the Tulsa pass patterns.

Broyles had no comment on yesterday's practice except to say that the Hogs were "not weary and not moving as well as they should."

Another Red-White scrimmage is set Saturday in Razorback Stadium.

THE STORY: The strange death of Cloris Howard's father on the Marquesas leads the girl to believe that a plague epidemic is threatened. The carrier is a tramp steamer headed for Mexico. Cloris is a veterinarian with the U.S. border service in California.

IV

"How can you be sure that your father's death and the death of the Greek sailor have anything in common?" Stature had the air of scoring a small triumph. "For all the cablegram tells us, your father might have been struck by lightning. I'm sorry. I don't mean to be facetious about it. But I'm trying to get you to separate logic from emotion."

Cloris studied her cigarette. It trembled slightly in her slender fingers. "Both you and Dr. Mannheim seem to believe that because I'm a woman I'm not capable of reasoned thought in a situation that happens to involve me personally."

"Let's not put it on a basis of sex differences. That isn't the point."

"Perhaps it is. But if I'm to be marked down for having womanly emotions, then I think I should be credited with another feminine quality—intuition. You're right—I can't prove that my father died of plague. But I know it just the same. That plague is now headed for Mexico on the Kaisar-i-Rum. It may be there already. I believe that it has to be stopped immediately, before it can kill anyone else."

Cloris met Stature's gaze squarely. "That may be emotion to you, doctor, but to me it's just plain logic."

Stature muttered, "I can't go about stirring up the whole western hemisphere on some wild goose chase. You're asking me to go out on a limb."

Clovis sew, and her heart sank. Stature, new on his job and anxious to make good, didn't relish the idea of initiating a project that could conceivably backfire and make him appear ridiculous. In any case, she couldn't blame him; in any government position, the first rule was self-preservation.

But how many people are going to die first? Cloris collected the slides and the letters and rose. "Mazatlan is only a thousand miles south of us, doctor. Six hours away by air. I hope for everyone's sake that Mexican quarantine is effective."

She was at the door when Stature spoke. "Wait a minute," Cloris waited but he did not return to her chair. She watched him put on his glasses and take them off again, turn them over and over in his hands. Finally, Stature said, "I trust you know that I consider 'I'm making a fool of myself.'"

"You mean you're going to help?"

Stature grudgingly reached for the telephone and with his other hand waved at the chair she had vacated. "Sit down, Dr. Howard. It looks like a long afternoon."

Ross Mallory strode out of the office and barely restrained himself from slamming the door behind him. He descended the stairs two at a time, almost hoping that somebody would get in his way so that he might knock him down. But no one did and he emerged into the afternoon sunshine, still chewing his rage.

Grandstander, Kelso had called him "Clory-grabber."

"Should have kicked his teeth in," Mallory muttered to himself. "Should have taken his badge and made him eat it."

The badge he referred to was the gold eagle insignia on his uniform pocket, designating him as a patrol inspector in the U.S. Border Patrol.

Mallory was a tall man, big-boned and burly, with a thick mane of black hair. His strong, rugged features were reddened from cruelty by the humorous, twisted smile of his mouth, which made it appear as if he were secretly amused by the world and himself.

as much as anything. At this moment, however, there was nothing good-natured about his expression. Mallory was made.

He held behind the wheel of his official jeep and stared back at the battered old two-story farmhouse that was Border Patrol Sector Headquarters.

The dog on the bucket seat beside him whined to remind Mallory of his presence. His name was Samson and he was a cross between a boxer and a pit bull, large and powerful.

"Shut up," Mallory advised Samson; like many solitary men, he treated the dog more as an equal than an animal. "You should have heard what Kelso said about you."

The trouble had started two days before when Mallory had received a tip that a well-known alien smuggler was going to attempt a midnight border crossing to the east. Mallory had neglected to inform sector headquarters and had staked out the area himself, together with Samson. That had been his first mistake, according to Kelso. A Mexican had appeared on schedule, had failed to halt when challenged, turning to the dog after him. That had been his second mistake. For the Mexican turned out to be merely an alarmist, a poor peon hoping to slip across the line and find work. Illegal entry, yes, but nothing to warrant the mauling Samson had given the man before Mallory could call the dog off. So the coup Mallory anticipated had turned instead into a fiasco that aroused the wrath of Mexican officials.

Not to mention Kelso, who was district Border Patrol chief. "I've been chewed out all the way back to Washington with everybody along the line taking a good bite," he had told Mallory.

Arkansas Fighter Goes Against Brecht

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—North Little Rock middleweight Sonny Ingram, undefeated in four professional fights, goes against Mel Brecht of New Orleans tonight in a 10 round main event at the national guard armory.

Ingram turned pro early this summer after a sparkling amateur career and several years coaching at the North Little Rock Boys Club.

An eight round semifinal bout matches Raymond Vega of West Memphis with Chico Gomez of New Orleans. Gomez was an Ingram kayo victim in June. Vega has won three straight.

Gene Gray of North Little Rock meets Jerry White of New Orleans in a six round welterweight bout, and Tom Coburn of Memphis takes on Leon Langley of Greenville, Miss., in a six round middleweight bout.

Merrill Lee of Blytheville, who is seeking a fight with Ingram, will box Rocky Nelson of New Orleans in another six rounder.

Will Prosecute Park Bombers

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Delaware Atty. Gen. Januar D. Bove said today he will press for convictions of eight white men accused in connection with the bombing of the only Negro home in suburban Collins Park.

He said that he will call a special session of the New Castle grand jury Sept. 22 to consider indictments against some or all of those accused.

Meanwhile, Gilbert Minnick, 49, of Collins Park, was given a hearing before Magistrate Frank J. Curle before charges of malicious mischief and third degree burglary in connection with a second bombing at the Corgi Rayfield home Aug. 2. Curle is re-arrested.

Minnick is among the eight men awaiting grand jury action on charges stemming from the first bombing at the Rayfield home.

Roast Beef
Good Buy at Many Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The kids go back to school this week—and Momma goes back to buying chuck roast.

That's the way the picture shapes up in the supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores. School lunch standbys such as jams, jellies, peanut butter, colicuts, bread and the like are promoted as special buys.

And housewives who may have put a crimp in the family budget entertaining last weekend can get even by having chuck roast.

Less expensive pork items such as loins and small picnic hams, also are being pushed. Leg of lamb is the feature at some stores in the East and Midwest. However, butter prices are moving upward just at the time school sandwiches must be prepared. Advances of as much as 4 cents a pound are reported, reflecting seasonal cuts in production.

Eggs also are going up, by 2 to 4 cents a dozen, although the increases mostly are for medium and large sizes.

Snap beans are an outstanding buy among vegetables, along with cabbage, medium-size onions, nearby potatoes, sweet potatoes, eggplant, corn and peppers. Other good buys are radishes, green onions, tomatoes, lopped carrots in the familiar cellophane bags, local celery cucumbers, endive and escarole.

Outstanding fruit buys are most nearby apples the small, dark blue type of plum, pears and purple Concord grapes.

Limes, oranges and lemons are good buys, too, but melons and peaches are fairly high.

Eight Negroes Are Jailed for Rape

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Eight Negro youths were arrested today for allegedly raping an 18-year-old white girl after dragging her screaming from her soldier escort. All except one were held without bail for a further hearing Sept. 23. The other—a juvenile—was sent to the Youth Study Center.

The girl originally told police that eight members of the gang dragged her into the bushes and raped her while seven others pinned down her escort, in a city park Monday afternoon.

But the girl now claims, according to police, that she was only half-conscious and doesn't remember clearly what happened.

Wraps Taken Off of New Mobot Mark 1

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mobot Mark 1, a mechanical and electronic marvel designed to take man's place in dangerous areas, made its debut today.

Scientists took the wraps off Mobot at the Hughes Aircraft Co. nuclear electronics laboratories, where it was developed for the Atomic Energy Commission's Sandia Laboratories at Albuquerque, N.M.

Looking somewhat like a small tractor, Mobot can maneuver handily, perform intricate tasks with its metal fingers and see through television-camera eyes.

The fantastic machine will do its work in "hot" areas of the atomic laboratories where man-made radiation is too intense for humans.

Mobot was described as the first operable machine to be both completely mobile and remote-controlled.

Dr. Allen E. Puckett, vice president of Hughes, said Mobot Mark 1 will be used by Sandia to test effects of radiation upon materials. "But future versions may someday scoop up a bucketful of moon dust for return to earth labs, farm the ocean bottom, fight fires and rescue men from disaster areas such as those containing poisonous gases," he added.

John L. Cole, head of Sandia's radiation effects section, said Mobot, with its TV-camera eyes, will find an item to be tested and carry it into a radiation lock adjacent to an irradiation cell, then return to its "hot" lab.

Test items can be removed by reversing this procedure. Mobot, which can use electric screwdrivers or nut runners, can disassemble the irradiated items for testing.

Mobot's pilot sits safely in another area behind thick concrete and directs the robot's movements with pistol-like grip controls which form electronic reins. He views the "hot" room through Mobot's TV eyes.

Worker Now Wants to Come Back to U.S.

By A. I. GOLDBERG
MOSCOW (AP) — A New York metal worker who applied for Soviet citizenship 10 days ago says he already is homesick for the United States and wants to go home.

Nicholas Petrulli, 38, of Valley Stream, N.Y., appeared to the U.S. Embassy Tuesday night to give him back the American citizenship he renounced.

"I don't have any family here, I haven't made any new friends, I don't have a job or money and would have to learn a new language," he told newsmen.

Petrulli said he has called his brother in Valley Stream for money to pay his Moscow hotel bills.

He already has his plane ticket home. He held on to the round-trip ticket he had on his $965 tour that brought him to Moscow Aug. 11.

Petrulli handed his passport to the U.S. Embassy last Thursday with a signed statement renouncing his American citizenship.

He had already written the Soviet Parliament asking for Soviet citizenship but got no reply. He said then he felt "economically and morally at home in the Soviet Union."

In Los Angeles, Petrulli's divorced wife, Helen, said she was "glad he changed his mind." She offered to take him back. They have a 4-year-old daughter.

Fired for Using White Swimming Instructors

ATLANTA (AP) — Permitting white girls to demonstrate swimming in a Negro pool has cost J. Ray Grayson his job as superintendent of parks and recreation in suburban East Point.

The East Point City Council, as sharply divided as the community, voted 5-3 to fire Grayson Tuesday night. The parks director, who had held the post for seven years, was not present at the meeting which attracted about 350 persons.

Mayor J. G. Stith suspended Grayson after the demonstration Aug. 5, sponsored by the American Red Cross. Stith said Grayson showed poor judgment.

Nine women and three men were on the demonstration team. Eight of the women are teenagers.

The mayor said white persons and Negroes were not in the pool at the same time.

Final Tally Shows 438 Traffic Deaths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A final tally shows 438 persons died in traffic accidents during the 78 hours of the Labor Day holiday weekend.

The record of 461 was set in 1951.

The National Safety Council had estimated 450 lives would be lost in traffic during the weekend extending from 8 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday, local time.

In addition to deaths from traffic accidents this year, there were 29 drownings resulting from boating accidents, and 62 non-boating drownings, and 84 deaths from miscellaneous accidents. The overall total for the holiday was 613.

Delaware Integration Plan Started

By LEE LINDER

DOVER, Del. (AP)—Delaware's grade - a - year school integration program started peacefully today. Without incident, three little Negro girls entered an elementary school in Milford, scene of violence and disorder when efforts were made to integrate at the high school level five years ago.

Some 20 Negro children in the southern counties of Kent and Sussex were registered to start the fall term in nine of the state's 84 school districts. Early reports indicated there was no fuss at any of the schools.

One state trooper was on hand, directing traffic at each school. Children, both white and Negro, arrived in the company of their mothers or friends. They walked into the school and started classes.

Officials at the Milford Elementary School, next door to the high school where violence raged in 1954, said everything was normal.

The mixing of white and Negro pupils in first grade classes was ordered by a federal court. Under the court order, one grade will be integrated each year for 12 years.

In this North-South border state, sandwiched between Pennsylvania and Maryland, integration has been in effect for more than five years in most of the public schools in northern New Castle County.

Opposition to integration has centered in the southern counties which are mostly rural.

The Bluff Dwellers, assumed to have lived in Arkansas 500 A.D., planted corn, squash, gourds, sunflowers, pumpkins and beans on the level hillsides and in the creek bottoms.

No Agreement in School Lease Pact

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Pulaski County (Rural) School Board met yesterday with members of the U.S. Corps of Engineers but failed to reach an agreement to lease to the federal government an elementary school adjacent to the Little Rock Air Force Base.

The Air Force wants the school integrated. The board stands to lose over $600,000 in federal aid if the government takes over the school, as it says it will do if the school is not integrated.

County school superintendent E. F. Dunn said the negotiations would resume within the next few days. He declined to say why no decision was reached.

The school is on Air Force property and is merely operated by the Pulaski County board. Only Air Force children attend the school.

Fire Damages N. L. R. School

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fire reportedly caused by a lightning bolt heavily damaged a Negro elementary school early today.

An electrical storm was raging when the fire broke out. An unidentified man who telephoned the alarm was quoted as saying he saw lightning strike the two-story Jones Elementary School.

The fire in the brick structure was brought under control in about an hour.

Only one injury was reported. A fireman was hit by falling debris but did not require hospital treatment.

The school has an estimated enrollment of 300. Fall classes started yesterday.

The class could not be determined immediately.

Gov. Barnett Blasts Race Moderates

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Integration of public schools in Delaware counties that had opposed race mixing began peacefully Wednesday.

Thirty Negro children entered first grades in nine of the state's 64 school districts in the southern counties Kent and Sussex. Other grades will be integrated, one a gradual change as a means of year, under a court order favoring gradual change as a means of lessening emotional strain.

Public schools in northern New Castle County, which contains about half the state's population, were integrated five years ago. About half of the 14,000 Negro pupils in the state are in schools previously integrated.

While only 36 Negro pupils were registered for the opening term, school officials said others could apply and be accepted anytime.

An elementary school in Millford where violence developed five years ago during efforts to integrate a high school opened its doors to four Negro girls Wednesday without incident.

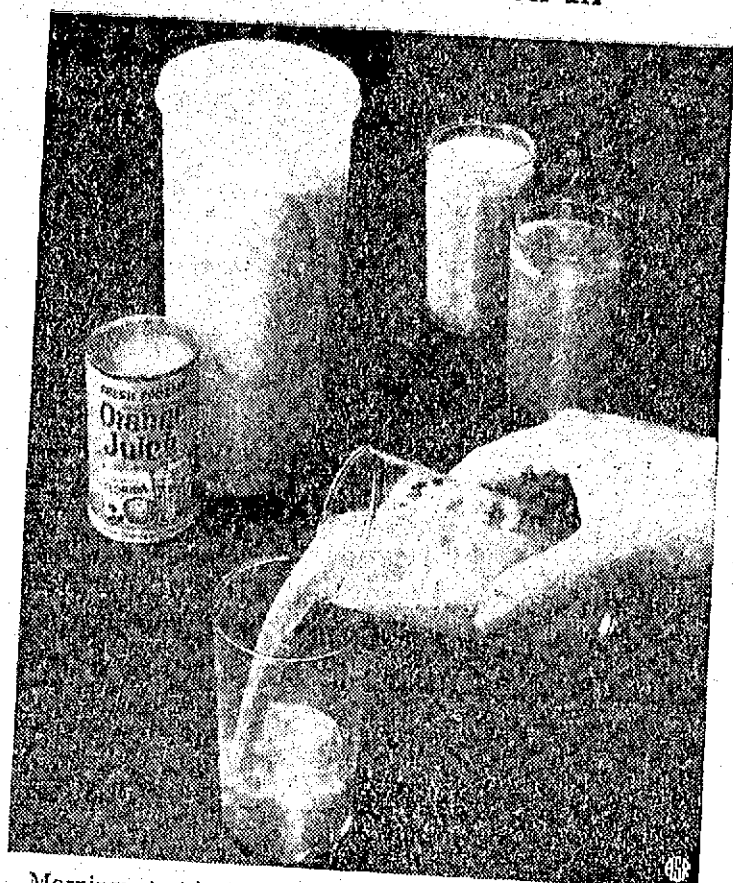

In Florida's first experiment in public school integration, seven more white children entered Orchard Villa Elementary School in Miami, bringing attendance to 15 whites and four Negroes. There were only eight white pupils in class when the Negroes were admitted for the first time Tuesday. White residents have been moving from the neighborhood, now predominantly Negro, and 93 additional Negroes have applied for admission to the school.

Richard W. Ervin, attorney general, said the scarcity of white pupils at the school demonstrates that Florida is not yet ready for classroom integration.

Spread of token integration brought a blast against racial moderates from Mississippi's Gov.-elect Ross Barnett.

Barnett charged moderates planned to move into his state in the next four years as part of a campaign to pick off Southern

The Flavor's Frozen In

Mornings start better with a tall glass of Florida orange juice. Its wonderful sunshine flavor is a good eye opener, tart and refreshing. Orange juice is the best and most reliable natural source of daily-needed vitamin C.

The flavor is frozen right in concentrated orange juice, as are the healthful nutrients. Simply add water to reconstitute, Shake aerate, making it sparkling and bubbly.

If you store frozen orange juice concentrate in the ice cube compartment of your refrigerator in a temperature range of 10 to 25°F, it is best to use the juice within a week. In the freezer up to 3 months with no loss of quality. Longer storage periods are possible in a home freezer maintaining a temperature of 0°F, or below. Once thawed, orange juice should be used immediately.

Here's a nutritious breakfast-in-a-glass suggestion:

Florida Neg
1 cup Florida orange juice 1 egg
1 tablespoon sugar
Combine all ingredients; beat with a rotary beater until blended. Pour into a 12-ounce glass. Serve immediately. Yield: 1 serving.

Famous Names to Greet the Late Viewers

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Two once famous movie names, familiar only to viewers of the late, late show on TV, returned to work before the cameras this week—and with some pungent remarks.

Onetime child star Roddy McDowall is making "The Subterraneans" at MGM, his first movie in eight years. Robert Hutton now a mature 39, is playing Jerry Lewis' mean stepbrother in "Cinderella." He is in his first Hollywood role, except for bits, since the days when he was a reigning bobby-dax idol at Warners during the Forties.

Roddy spent his eight years profitably on Broadway and television, starring in such stage hits as "No Time For Sergeants" and "Compulsion." His roles ran from large to Shakespeare. He even played a Mexican in one play.

"I don't think that I could have had that diversification if I had stayed in Hollywood," says Roddy. "I could see that producers identified me too much with 'Tassie' and 'My Friend Flicka'."

Hutton, who made pictures mostly abroad, lays his Hollywood hiatus to agents.

"Agents have more ego than actors," says Hutton. "Everything here is based on pride and precedent. When I left my Warner contract, my agent arbitrarily set too high a price on me."

"All of a sudden, I wasn't working. Finally, I told him I'd work for nothing to get a good role. He bawled me out, said he and I both would lose status if I did such a thing."

Recently, Bob did a one day bit in "It Started With a Kiss," with Glenn Ford and Debbie Reynolds. He took it over his agent's strong protests.

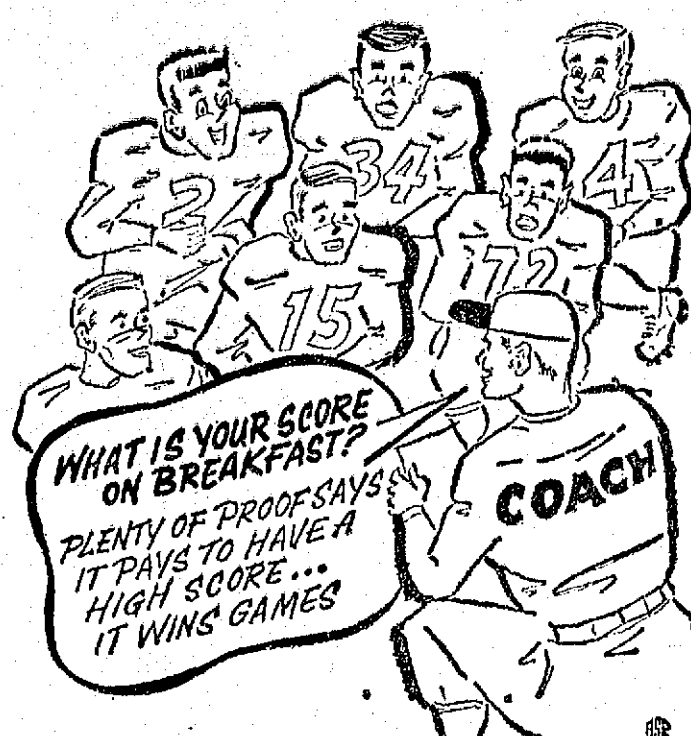

Jerry Lewis saw the bit and asked Bob to see him about a part in the comic's version of "Cinderella."

"Why don't they act instead of having to be forced?" he asked during a hearing on a suit to admit 16 children of Negro parents at Sewart Air Force Base to an all-white county school at Smyrna.

Miller gave the school commission a week to submit an integration plan. Only three Tennessee public school systems have started integration. They are at Oak Ridge, Clinton and Nashville.

September Is Better Breakfast Month

You will do better when you eat breakfast. Research at The State University of Iowa has demonstrated when you eat a good breakfast you can turn out more work during the late morning hours. When breakfast is skipped, your work output is less, mental reactions are slower, and muscular fatigue increases. A basic cereal and milk breakfast of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter, supplying one-fourth of the day's calories and protein is superior in maintaining mental and physical efficiency in the late morning hours, when compared to larger or smaller morning meals. Now, during September National Better Breakfast Month, start each day with a good breakfast.

Faubus Aides to Start Newspaper

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Phil Stratton, one of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' administrative aides, said yesterday he has resigned to become editor of a weekly states rights newspaper.

Stratton said he would publish a weekly paper, the "States Rights Digest," and that a corporation was being formed to finance it.

He managed the gubernatorial campaign of Arkansas Supreme Court Justice Jim Johnson in 1950 and his Supreme Court campaign appointment as a Faubus aide on April 7, 1953.

Stratton's resignation is effective Sept. 15.

Hot Springs to Vote on Big Bond Issue

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The Hot Springs City Council last night adopted an ordinance setting up a Nov. 3 election on a proposed $12 million dollar bond issue.

The major money—$10,000,000—would be used to build a plant for the city's water supply.

No tax increase was necessary if the bonds are approved in a referendum, which will be held on Nov. 3.

Jonesboro Quits His Job

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—The resignation of Frank Jonesboro, announced last night, was effective immediately.

Clarke said the resignation, effective immediately, was in a letter to the City Council.

Barnett told a Citizens Council meeting at Jackson, Miss., Tuesday night that moderates "are nothing more than Southern bourgeois. They want to rob us of our priceless heritage, and they tell us that we shouldn't complain as long as they steal it a little bit at a time."

About the time he was speaking, two FBI laboratory experts moved into Little Rock, Ark., to assist in the probe of three bombings linked to token integration at the schools there.

A $25,000 reward was posted for solution of the dynamiting Monday night of the school board building, the mayor's office and the fire chief's official car. Police armed with riot guns patrolled the city streets and guarded the schools.

State police were alerted in southern Delaware for the start of a grade-year integration in largely rural Kent and Sussex counties. Gov. J. Caleb Boggs, a Republican, said his people were lawabiding and would honor the federal court order. Many schools in the northern area around Wilmington were integrated without incident five years ago.

Itinerary of Red Premier Not Complete

WASHINGTON (AP)—Just what Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will see on his visit to the United States is still an official mystery, even though his arrival is only six days away.

So far only a bare-bones outline of the Soviet premier's itinerary has been issued here, although the announcement of his coming was made by President Eisenhower more than five weeks ago.

An apparent reason for the delay lies in red tape in Moscow, thicker than the Washington variety, which makes still more difficult the arduous task of preparing for an historic visit of top importance.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty has named the half-dozen U. S. cities Khrushchev will visit and the dates.

The White House also has announced the detailed schedule for the first two days of the Sept. 15-27 visit. These are Khrushchev's initial days in Washington, marked by ceremonial functions.

But as for specific questions on what the Soviet leader will do on his cross-country travels from New York to Los Angeles—and the questions pour in by the hundreds—the official reply here is that it is still uncertain when an announcement can be made.

That is the stock answer given even after persons and organizations along the Khrushchev route have passed out word locally of arrangements for the visitor.

The headaches to planners from an unsettled schedule are compounded on a mammoth scale.

About 100 Soviets are expected to accompany the Premier to the United States. They will have to be received, fed, and housed.

About 350 newsmen and photographers have applied to cover the tour. More than a thousand want accreditation at local stops.

Federal and local security officials will have to mesh gears to provide protection and handle the crowds.

The traveling horde will need special transportation and accom-

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

A Calorie Pinch Turns to Profit

A boy, junior-grade or full-grown, how he avoids running when his allowance is cut. He is apt to tell you he pinches and cuts back on ways he spends money. Dieting is not the same way when their calorie allowance is cut and they do not eat as much as they did. Their bodies automatically pinch and cut back on ways to spend energy.

Results: An unconscious decrease in physical activity. Increase your physical activity while you cut back on the amount you eat.

Calorie-pinching way in which the body acts to conserve when food is restricted was revealed in a study conducted by Robert Olson of the University of Pittsburgh. Adults on controlled reducing diets unconsciously—almost automatically—reduced their physical activities.

Olson also observed that men and women in their fabulous figure develop another unconscious way to pinch. By learning techniques to save on time and motion, they skill in their ways of working. They become too efficient and good! In burning less energy, they gain in weight as in years. Cutting down on activity, consciously or unconsciously, makes losing weight a slow and hungry process.

Are in this pinch because of a cut in your calorie allowance, increase physical activity. At the same time, cut back amount of all food you eat. The resulting deficit financing is your profit: A loss in weight.

U. S. Role in Integration Controversy

BUFF, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Faubus called a special session of the Arkansas General Assembly yesterday with the purpose of discussing the federal role in the integration controversy.

Faubus said the government is preparing to interfere in the public high schools and $10,000 of this money is to be used to "live and let live" which they didn't use.

Says Negro Vote Could Solve Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Little Rock lawyer told the National Urban League convention yesterday that racial troubles will continue in this city as long as Arkansas Negroes fail to vote.

Edwin E. Dunaway, who is white, said that if 25 per cent of the Negroes voted, Gov. Orval E. Faubus would never have closed the Little Rock high schools.

Dunaway added that a mob, which he said was supported by the governor, had "failed miserably" in its opposition to token integration in two high schools.

Commenting later on three Monday night bombings in the Arkansas capital, Dunaway said they were the work of crackpots. There is no danger of sustained violence in Little Rock, he said, because violence is deplored by the "city's decent people, including the segregationists."

This Council Did Not Have Meetings

NARRAGANSETT, R.I. (AP)—A three member committee appointed by the town council six months ago admitted Tuesday night it has never held a meeting.

Each of the three members said he thought one of the others was chairman and privileged to call a meeting.

Cool Air Brings Some Relief

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Cool air held in check several days by a high pressure area will push through today, bringing relief from hot, muggy weather to some sections of the country.

Cooling breezes will blow eastward and southward from the northern and central Plains states and upper Mississippi Valley.

East of this section, the hot, muggy weather will continue, the Weather Bureau said.

First Hit Brings Barons a Victory

BIRMINGHAM (AP)—Vince Trakan, a relief pitcher who went to bat only nine times during regular season play, got his first hit last night. It won Birmingham a 3-2 victory over Mobile in the first game of a best-of-seven Southern Assn. pennant series.

In 72 2-3 innings of mound duty, Trakan had an 8-5 record and, of course, he took the pitching victory last night, too.

The 6-2 right-hander went to the House Votes Seat to Rep. Alford

WASHINGTON (AP)—By a vote of 24-55, the House has declared that Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark.) is entitled to his seat in Congress.

Alford, a strong segregationist, won a surprise written victory in Little Rock last November over Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.). Hays was considered a moderate on the question of school integration.

Alford's campaign featured use of printed stickers bearing his name which were pasted onto ballot marked at the start of the ninth with Mobile holding a 2-1 margin.
